PRESIDENT: The Legislature will please come to order. Kindly record your presence. Please record as you come in Senator Barnett and all your friends. You bet. Chair recognizes Senator Kelly.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, members of the Legislature.

PRESIDENT: Excuse me, Senator Kelly. It is true that this is Senator Savage's amendment, or at least he said he didn't draw it, but it is his amendment. The Clerk has raised the question whether it's proper to proceed with this debate in the absence of Senator Savage.

SENATOR KELLY: I would agree with that Mr. President. In light that the smoke around this thing is so thick that I can't see for sure, I'm withdrawing my amendment until the weather gets a little better.

PRESIDENT: Well you're not going to withdraw it. You want to just hold it in the basis where we are?

SENATOR KELLY: I'm not going to enter it. I want to tear it up and throw it away.

PRESIDENT: Oh, you're going to forget it.

SENATOR KELLY: I'm going to forget my amendment.

PRESIDENT: You want to withdraw your amendment?

SENATOR KELLY: It has not been entered, it's just been talked of being entered.

PRESIDENT: The one we were on this morning? No, no, no. You were talking on Savages' amendment to 423.

SENATOR KELLY: That's correct. My recognition was for the purpose of amending to strike "class 2 school districts".

PRESIDENT: So you're not going to do that.

SENATOR KELLY: I am not going to do that and . . .

PRESIDENT: Alright, that's withdrawn then.

SENATOR KELLY: Correct.

PRESIDENT: Do you wish to make any other further statement on Senator Savages' amendment?

SENATOR KELLY: Not at this time, Mr. Chairman.

PRESIDENT: Alright.

CLERK: Mr. President, may I read some reports in the Journal?

PRESIDENT: Yes.
